Mexican Advices.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—[illegible] that the Republicans appear [illegible] that the [illegible] Imperialists [illegible] have [illegible] nine hundred Imperialists with [illegible] are further said to [illegible] Carvajal.

[illegible] paper makes light of this and [illegible] Monterey [illegible] We have [illegible] from [illegible] City of Mexico [illegible] Imperial [illegible] The Republicans [illegible] State [illegible] last cartridge [illegible] Very heavy and lasting rains had fallen near the [illegible] The valley of Mexico being in some places completely inundated causing considerable damage to the roads and farms in the vicinity of the valley. The stage road between Mexico and Puebla was impassable, and to such an extent at one point that passengers and baggage had to be transferred.

The [illegible] City of Mexico correspondent says the news from Sonora is that the [illegible] was [illegible] by the insubordination of [illegible] who refused to serve under him any longer. General Pasquera in command of Refugio [illegible] was abandoned by his men. Out of a garrison of 1,000 [illegible] to remain with him. The city of Ures in the northern part of Sonora [illegible] the Emperor. The French prisoners, officers and soldiers of the Algerian [illegible] who were [illegible] captives in the city [illegible] their freedom. The band of [illegible] guerrillas 150 strong was routed near Monterey by Lieutenant [illegible] forty men. The band of [illegible] was surprised near Gualo and routed. The inhabitants of Teran, against which these bands intended to operate, on hearing of this immediately organized themselves into a sort of militia and have by their bravery contributed to defeat them. The Government is actively engaged in obtaining lands from the wealthy proprietors of the country for the purpose of transferring them to emigrants who have either landed in Mexico or contemplate going there. The Minister of Interior addressed a lecture to the Prefects of Departments advising them to invite the owners of haciendas to yield to the State, on conditions advantageous to immigrants, portions of land not under cultivation. In doing this the Government does not intend to deprive real estate owners of their legitimate property, but leaves them on such conditions as they may like and acts as an agent between the immigrants and proprietors; at the same time the latter are advised that the Government asks for lands at its disposal for from 50c to $1 50 per acre, according to the value of land and the number of acres bought.

The Herald has a letter from a Mexican exile stating that there is no foundation for the report that Gen. Ortega succeeded in effecting a large loan for the Republic of Mexico, based on the security of confiscated property.

The Herald says it is reported that Carvajal and a force of filibusters estimated at 3,000 were landed near Tuspan, where they were defeated and the principal part captured by the Government troops. Carvajal was wounded.

The city of Jalapa, in the State of Vera Cruz, has been occupied by the Liberal forces under Don Alatorre. The Liberal Governor of Puebla, Fernando Ortega, has established himself within eight or ten leagues of the capital of Mexico. He has sufficient force to maintain himself. Communication between Vera Cruz and the capital is daily becoming more difficult.

The Chasseurs de Afrique, numbering 1,000, are at [illegible], in Tamaulipas, but hold only the ground on which they stand.

The Imperial papers admit that the Government can exercise no authority in the States of Jalisco, Michoacan, San Luis Potosi and others.

The [illegible] Mexican correspondent says that reports were current in Vera Cruz that the expedition organized by Ortega in New York, would reach the vicinity of Bagdad during the month of September.

Vera Cruz dates of the 15th, say the city of Mexico and Vera Cruz were quiet, but a good deal of malignant disease prevailed.

On the 8th reports were received at the capital from [illegible] County that [illegible] with a small command was attacked at [illegible] on the 17th by a combined force of brothers Mendez, and after three hours desperate fighting, drove them from the field. Subsequently Capt. [illegible] was reinforced by 300. On the 19th the forces of Mendez made their appearance on the mountains but retired, [illegible] a detachment thrown forward to meet them. The General then determined to relieve that section of country of these [illegible] We [illegible] that the dwellings of the people were frequently robbed and burned by Juarez men.

From [illegible] we learn that the authorities have adopted measures which will soon be put in operation against all guerrilla bands in the vicinity.

The [illegible] letter says that the great railroad which is to unite Vera Cruz to the city of Mexico is progressing rapidly. Eight hundred [illegible] were landed at Orizaba for the service of the company.

The Alabama Convention—Confederate Debt Repudiated.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 26.—The Alabama State Convention to-day debated the election ordinance and finally agreed that all State elections shall be left to the people, and that the first election should take place on the first Monday in November.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The President has been informed by telegraph that the Alabama Convention, by a vote of 60 to 19 passed an ordinance providing that all debts created by the State of Alabama in the late war, directly or indirectly, are void, and that the general assembly of the State shall have no authority and are forbidden [illegible] the same or to assume to provide for the payment of the same or any part thereof [illegible] shall have no authority [illegible] or make any provision for the payment of any [illegible] created directly or indirectly by the [illegible] The Convention also decided by a vote [illegible] the amendments of the [illegible] A dispatch has also been received by the President announcing the [illegible] by the South Carolina Convention.

Demands for Damages against Foreign Governments to be Prosecuted.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The Times special says the State Department has given notice [illegible] the United States having [illegible] foreign governments [illegible] which may have originated since [illegible] without [illegible] forward to the Department [illegible] under oath accompanied by proper proofs [illegible] parties who have suffered [illegible] the rebel cruisers [illegible] it is believed receive damages from the English Government. The notice is intended to include those who have suffered from raids upon the frontier of Canada. The Secretary of State has taken the matter in hand and intends to prosecute it vigorously to a successful issue.

Cholera Moving Westward.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The Post [illegible] State Department [illegible] Constantinople [illegible] that the cholera is increasing in Turkey [illegible] afresh in Italy and Barcelona.

From the Arctic Expedition—Three Men of Franklin's Expedition Probably Alive.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Henry Grinnell has received a very important and interesting letter from Captain Hall, the Arctic explorer, which announces that he has discovered such facts in his present expedition as to lead to believe that there are yet surviving three men from Sir John Franklin's expedition. Crozier, who succeeded Sir John Franklin in command of the expedition, and three other had been seen. Crozier was reduced to a skeleton and being starved to death while his men were fat, they having lived on human flesh—the flesh of their companions, who all deserted the two ships that were fast in mountains of ice, while Crozier would not eat human flesh. The man finding the party, at once took them in charge and catching seal fed Crozier sparingly day by day until his life was saved. He thus cared for the men during a whole winter, during which some of the men died. Crozier and the two remaining men were then taken [illegible] peninsula where were many Innuits and Esquimaux. Having guns and plenty of ammunition they were enabled to shoot plenty of ducks, etc. The Innuits treated them very kindly. At length they started for Cockburn's Land, since which they have not been seen or heard from. All this was previous to 1854, but the Innuits insist that Crozier and his friends are now alive.

The Fenian Excitement Increases in Ireland.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Additional intelligence from Ireland states that the Fenian excitement increases. Grave apprehensions are entertained. It is reported that men in the English army are boasting of their connection with Fenians, and signs of disaffection in the army cause the English papers to demand the rigid enforcement of discipline. Fears are entertained that soldiers from the United States will be landed on the coast of Ireland, and a report had gained credit that a body of disbanded U. S. soldiers had already landed near Dublin. Nightly drillings were frequent in all parts of Ireland. The conspiracy was rapidly spreading and finding friends and sympathizers everywhere.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The Dublin Press of the 15th says: We learn that in many of the garrison towns in Ireland are to be found under the Queen's color, those who openly announce, in the name of Ireland, themselves Fenians. They are found among those lately arrived from [illegible], where the Yankee Missionaries established themselves. If it were allowed to go abroad that there were signs of disaffection among the Queen's troops in Ireland, it would be very prejudicial.

The Dublin Evening Mail of the 16th, announcing the seizure of the Irish People's news office, says: It has been suspected and the attention of the authorities was directed to the existence in Dublin of a circle of Fenianism or an arm of the American National Brotherhood of St. Patrick. In the progress of their examinations the police came to the conclusion that the office of the Irish People, an avowed Fenian organ, was the locality to which nearly every returned Irish American threaded his way on his arrival in this country. The establishment was accordingly seized. Though no strange persons were found to be in the house, no less than ten principals and employees of the establishment were arrested, including Adams, Crane, and Lane, the person who seemed to have been chief manager of the Irish People. Felix O'Donovan was arrested while endeavoring to make his escape. The seizure of the publication was under the special order of the Privy Council. During the night a variety of arrests were made, among them being a gentleman named O'Farrell, the reputed editor of the Irish People, and another who had an alleged connection with the paper. Ten prisoners were subsequently brought before the Court and remanded for examination.

A week later. No discord, and the city is fearfully quiet. The Mail says it has seen a copy of the suppressed paper. It had a variety of articles calculated to create disaffection. But the correspondence is the strongest feature. It extends over nearly three pages and is so pungently written that it is impossible to classify it out of ordinary news letters sent to an editor by voluntary correspondents. It is probably prompted by the opposition to ecclesiastic influence which has been a marked feature of the paper. The communication also contains such paragraphs as this: "Liberty the Irish will have. When they seek it, it will be in a different place than the Parliament of their oppressors and they will use different and more forcible arguments." Accounts from the southern counties show that the Magistrates of the various districts have been particularly active within the last few days in their efforts to put a stop to drilling and effect the arrest of foreign emissaries. In the county of Waterford the circulation of treasonable ballads is on the increase. The fact of systematic nightly drill can hardly be doubted. An investigation was had yesterday by Lord Caren and the Magistrates of Waterford with respect to military drilling in the county of Carlow. The number of men engaged in each of these midnight escapades is not small, but the occurrence of similar practices in so many localities in different counties would seem certainly to show some secret management and a coming purpose.

The South Carolina Convention Resolutions—Constitution.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The South Carolina reconstruction Convention resolutions say that the Union is the first and paramount consideration of the American people; that the sovereignty resides solely in the American people, and that the [illegible] representatives of that sovereignty within the limits of the Constitution is the National Government. They further [illegible] that the late war was not one of an oppressed people [illegible] tyranny, but arose simply from apprehension [illegible] the part of the weaker section of possible trammels in the future. The war, therefore, not has been prosecuted strictly in the nature of a rebellion [illegible] they desire to suggest to President Johnson the justice and wisdom of the [illegible] penalties affixed to the crime [illegible] laws of the United States [illegible] their good faith they [illegible] express a determination [illegible] whole country to the blessings of prosperity.

The new constitution of South Carolina, framed in accordance with these principles [illegible] civil and religious liberty, trial by jury, freedom of the press, subordination of military [illegible] power are secured to the people of the State [illegible] slavery is declared forever abolished.

COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA, Sept. [illegible] Convention has adjourned after a session of fifteen days. They repealed the ordinance of secession, abolished slavery, [illegible] constitution of the State [illegible] throughout the State [illegible] President [illegible] Alexander Hughes and [illegible] ex-Vice President Johnson [illegible] the Legislature meet [illegible] All are loyal [illegible]

Massachusetts State Loan.

NEW YORK, Sept. [illegible] Barings have made [illegible] the State loan of £700,000 [illegible] sterling.

The Daily Oregonian.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 4, 1865.

South Carolina.

The State of South Carolina, in whose soil the seeds of sedition and rebellion were earliest planted, has at last reconsidered her errors and turned away from them. Who will despair of the final triumph of freedom and of liberal ideas, now that even South Carolina is reclaimed? The State which almost from the very first has stood in direct antagonism to the National Government, absurdly disputing for sovereignty with the only true sovereign power, now at last recants and starts forward in the course which her loyal sisters have always held. She acknowledges the rightful supremacy of the General Government, and gives to the country her renunciation of the false theory of State rights—the theory which was mainly instrumental in bringing her past and present woes upon her. And further, by a deliberate vote of her representatives chosen freely by the people with that object in view, slavery has been declared abolished, and the great Amendment prohibiting it forever, has been ratified. This is a part of what the war has accomplished. South Carolina hitherto, on account of her deadly hostility to National interests, almost considered a supernumerary member of the Federal Union, now assures the country that her conduct hereafter shall be in consonance with her duty, and promises to thoroughly amend the errors which she has assiduously propagated for forty years.

The troublesome little State without whose unreasonable and precipitate action the rest of the South would probably not have engaged in open rebellion, now abandons her followers of whom the North contains not a few, and leaves them to pursue their foolish pro-slavery and erroneous State Rights policy alone. Will "Democrats" who have heretofore stood by South Carolina in the advocacy of these false doctrines, now heed the recantation of their teacher? Or shall we in future as in the past, be told by the "Democracy" of Oregon that sovereignty inheres in each State and does not belong to the National Government? Will they persist in defending slavery and in trying to re-establish it, when the Southern States one by one are declaring it abolished? Most likely they will. For years the party has existed solely that it might defend slavery and the right of secession, and when it gives up these doctrines or "principles" as "Democrats" call them—itself will be no more. But we think our Secession-State Rights-Democrats will sometime be able to discover that the recent action of South Carolina, Alabama and Mississippi bodes the dissolution of the party which has long sustained the identical ideas which led to the late great rebellion.

Chivalry Turned Beggars.—Who could ever have imagined that haughty and chivalric Virginia would ever get down to the following which comes from a late number of the Richmond Whig. The doleful appeal is addressed to President Johnson: "Poor and needy, weak and wounded, sick and sore, Virginia's sons and daughters implore and beseech you to spare this bereaved community the infliction of this death blow, and leave to them unmolested what little they have left.

The Umatilla Advertiser says that an immigrant train of twenty-one wagons has crossed the Columbia river, and that these new comers are now looking for places to settle in Yakima valley. The Advertiser predicts that a large settlement will grow up in the Yakima country.

The Richmond Whig, in speaking of the next Congress, places the fifty-eight Southern members along with the thirty-six Northern Copperheads. Who supposes the rebels don't know their own friends.

Montana Territory, it is said, has elected a "Democratic" delegate to Congress. The Southern Confederacy, it appears, has been transferred to Idaho and Montana.

J. R. Foster & Co., are intending to erect a large brick store at Umatilla the coming Spring. This will be the first building of the kind in the place.

There are now above 15,000 people in the Blackfoot country.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.

New York, Aug. 31, 1865.

DEFUNCT.

What is alleged as having been one of the prominent incentives to gold and stock gambling—the Evening Exchange—is now defunct. It was originally started in a subterranean opening near the Fifth Avenue Hotel, now occupied as a gin-mill, but soon expanded and crept up level with the sidewalk—thence a palatial structure was erected, devoted to the business, and known as Gallaher's Exchange. It was quite successful for a time, but many of our leading stock brokers have always avoided its precincts, and the major portion of the business done has been by young clerks and a number of people who have lately appeared upon the street as "outside stock brokers;" but the really principal operations have been gold-gambling, in which fortunes have been made and lost. The regular Board of Brokers, a few days since, warned by the public sentiment which was being aroused against them by the speculations, frauds and forgeries which were coming to light through the fearless exposures of the press, and fearing that their calling would soon be a stench in the nostrils of humanity, solemnly voted that any member of their Board known to have any affiliations with the Evening Exchange should be forthwith expelled. That killed Gallaher's Exchange; and Gallaher will have to depend upon his bar and billiards, or go back to Richmond to his old newspaper.

A FILTHY JOB

connected with our street cleaning is about to be undertaken by the Governor, who has just notified the Street Cleaning Commissioners, consisting of Mayor Gunther, Controller Brennan, City Inspector Poole, Corporation Counsel Devlin and Recorder Hoffman, that he will institute an investigation into the charges of their violating the Street Cleaning law, which required them to make a contract on the best terms to the city for five years for cleaning streets, instead of which they had made a contract for ten years not the most advantageous to the city. And it is charged that they thus wilfully violated the law in order to benefit themselves and their friends pecuniarily. The Commissioners have been given twenty-six days to prepare their defence, and it is expected much light will be thrown upon the manner in which the "Big Things" of New York are created and manipulated into the possession of those in "The Ring."

THE JEWELRY LOTTERY BUSINESS.

A man giving his name as L. Hayward has been arrested here on the charge of swindling in a manner so common that it is surprising. He has an office at 229 Broadway, and under the firm name of L. Hayward & Co., he has sent out circulars, stating that owing to the reduction in the premium on gold they are enabled to furnish jewelry at less than half its former value. On the receipt of five dollars they agree to send customers tickets for prizes ranging from a valuable gold watch to a pin or sleeve buttons. After securing the five dollars, the victim, the police say, hears nothing more of the matter. This business has been carried on by this firm successfully for nine months, the accused receiving from seventy five to one hundred letters per day. A large number of these, however, are complaints from their victims. When arrested Hayward had forty two letters fresh taken out of the Postoffice. In view of the publicity given to such swindles every month or so, it is strange dupes can be found.

SEA SICKNESS.

As every one who has experienced it will say, is simply a horrible sensation. And yet, how is it to be avoided, except by remaining on land and never going down to the sea in big ships? Mr. Thomas Silver, the inventor of the "patent marine governor," however, has an idea that he can remedy the evil, and the prospectus of a projected company for a line of Trans Atlantic steamers possessing certain novel features, the invention of Mr. S., is issued, telling us that the vessels will be of sufficient length, say five hundred and ninety feet, to overlap the waves and avoid pitching, and of such breadth (say seventy-five feet) as to prevent rolling, thus relieving the passengers of that motion which brings on the nauseating sensation called sea sickness. The vessels are also to be of light draft, and make extraordinary speed without the use of sails. It is claimed the passage across the Atlantic can be made within seven days. It is also proposed to introduce the mode of the system on board, charging from twenty five to seventy five dollars for the passage and serve the meals à la carte at the [illegible] first class restaurant plan. There is to be an excellent system of ventilation and sewerage, furnishing a constant supply of pure air. The advent of these steamers will be joyfully hailed.

A NEW YORK MORMON

Recently turned up in 24th street, or rather was turned up by the police. After being taken before the Court, the evidence proved that he had four wives living, all of whom he has married within ten years. He was arrested at the instigation of the last wife, who evidently was not particular until after discovering she had been made the fourth victim. He will be allowed to think over the vicissitudes of married life in prison, which place will probably be not so pleasant a place for his amorous propensities as Utah, where he ought to have emigrated long since. What is singular about the affair, is that he is an ugly looking fellow, with one eye knocked out.

COTTON.

The receipts of cotton at this port within the last two weeks have been very large, and prices have gone considerably lower. This stimulates the manufacturers of New England and other parts to renewed activity; they have been buying largely, and in a short time we may expect to see a notable decline of cotton goods.

BUSINESS PROSPECTS.

The fall season promises to be the best we have had in a business point of view since 1860. Buyers from the South and West are here in large numbers, and the orders received in other ways from these sections are large. The general expectation, founded on what is already known, is of an immensely active market this fall.

MURDERS IN PITTSBURG.

The city of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, has been very much excited by disclosures of murders committed there. On Thursday last the remains of a man, with the throat cut and the body shockingly mutilated, was found lying on some vacant ground, and on the following day a Mrs. Grinder was arrested on a charge of having been for some time engaged in secretly and systematically poisoning of persons who visited her, without any apparent motive. It is said to be known that three of her victims have died, and a fourth is not expected to live.

THE FOREIGN NEWS

Don't amount to much now-a-days. By the last arrival we learn that France has determined upon reducing her army to a peace footing. This signifies that the clamor of the people against the heavy army expenses, greatly increased by the invasion of Mexico, has met with success. The mutual fraternization naval display of France and England has commenced, the English Channel fleet having arrived in front of Cherbourg, and been handsomely received. The French fleet will soon return the compliment by going to Portsmouth.

THE STEAMSHIP MONTANA,

Which sailed hence on the 12th of August for San Francisco, returned a week since with loss of steam cock and other damages. She went into dock for repairs, and has just come out, and will leave again in a few days for the Golden State.

MORE TROOPS FOR CALIFORNIA.

The Second United States Artillery will soon sail for California as a reinforcement to the troops already there. The Government is evidently getting fully awake to the importance of the defence of the Pacific States.

A late rebel arsenal in Richmond, containing fifteen thousand shot and shell, together with a great quantity of cartridges and ammunition for small arms, took fire and exploded on Tuesday afternoon. One soldier was killed and a negro severely wounded. The loss is between sixty and one hundred thousand dollars.

A quartermaster's clerk, named Edward Russel, was arrested at Cincinnati on the 13th, charged with absconding with twenty thousand dollars in Government funds. Mr. Russell was in company with a woman, and had in his possession eight thousand dollars in cash, besides diamonds and a watch.

It is said that twenty-nine thousand additional troops are to be immediately mustered out of service, as follows: From the Middle Department, six thousand; Department of Washington, eight thousand; Kentucky, five thousand; North Carolina, eight thousand; Mississippi, two thousand.

Jeff. Davis is to be tried in one of the United States Circuit Courts, though what particular one is not yet known. It is thought probable, however, that Norfolk, Virginia, will be the place of his trial, and that Chief Justice Chase will preside.

Intelligence has been received of the arrival at Fort Scott, Kansas, of the government commissioners, now on their way to meet the various bands of rebellious aborigines in a grand council at Fort Smith, for the purpose of negotiating a treaty of peace and friendship between them and the government.

Governor John Brough, of Ohio, died in Cleveland, on Tuesday, after a long and severe illness, originating in gangrene of the foot, in the fifty-fourth year of his age.

President Johnson has directed that Maj. Generals N. P. Banks, Daniel Butterfield, Silas Casey, Abner Doubleday, Sam'l P. Heintzelman, Geo. L. Hartsuff and John J. Peck, be honorably mustered out of the service of the United States. Thirty-nine Brigadier Generals of volunteers were also directed to be honorably mustered out.

NEW YORK, [illegible] were arraigned [illegible] charged by the captain with mutiny [illegible] that on the 31st of September there was a [illegible] of the crew. The [illegible] made on [illegible] During the evening [illegible] the [illegible] armed themselves [illegible] and after [illegible] two or three. The captain came aft at this juncture. The crew [illegible] demanded [illegible] The captain complied with the wishes [illegible] the two. On reaching this port the crew [illegible] the officers and placed them in the [illegible] keeping guard over them until they arrived at this port. The crew on the other hand, say they were not [illegible] treated and kept short of rations and what they did have was badly cooked. On the day in question the third [illegible] was unfit to eat. They went to the cook to demand better cooking. He replied that he was good enough for them and assaulted one of them with a large fork. The boatswain here interfered and was driven out of the galley. The crew say that the difficulty was here ended, but that the mate and boatswain armed themselves and fired right among the crew and passengers without any warning. Exasperated at this and fearing a recurrence they did insist upon the captain [illegible] the [illegible] up until they arrived here.

Negro Suffrage.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. A Washington letter says: In reference to the admission of Southern Representatives in Congress and the negro suffrage question, negotiations are on foot to the effect that if the Southern States will adopt laws conferring the right of suffrage on males without distinction of color who can read and write, the Southern representatives shall be admitted.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. – The Corsica from Havana September 23 and Nassau September [illegible] has arrived. The gunboat [illegible] was at [illegible] to settle salvage in the case of the wrecked steamer [illegible]. Two hundred slaves had been landed on the island of Aquilla to be transferred to Cuba. A detachment of troops was sent to the Island, from Nassau, in consequence.

The Cholera.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29. Letters from the United States Consul at Brindisi, Italy, dated Aug. 8th says: The Asiatic cholera has made its appearance in the Adriatic and on the Italian peninsula. At the time of writing the dispatch it seemed to be spreading in all directions.

Duke Gwin Surrenders Himself

The Tribune's special dispatch says a telegram was received by the President to-day from General Weitzel, commanding in Texas, stating that the notorious Duke Gwin and ex-Gov. Clark of Missouri have crossed the Rio Grande, surrendered themselves and are now supplicating pardon.

Nearly Ten Thousand Pardons Granted

The Times special dispatch says: The President has cleared his desk of all pardon applications, having granted nearly ten thousand pardons within the past three days. Inspection of the lists show the names to the twenty thousand dollar exception, with very few persons [illegible] political penalty. Among them is Ex Senator Badger of North Carolina, Ex Congressman M. C. Quinn of South Carolina, Duncan McRae, formerly Colonel in the rebel army and afterward cotton agent in Europe.

Arrest of Counterfeiters

The detectives of the Treasury Department have succeeded in effecting two important arrests of counterfeiters. The detectives were put on the track by the revelation of a confederate named Eck[illegible] seven weeks since. The arrangements were so that the counterfeiters were arrested at different places in this city and [illegible] while at work. The first was taken on Monday and the second on September 2[illegible]. They proved to be two English engravers who have been practicing the art in criminal ways for the last nine years. Both were committed for trial.

WISTAR'S BALSAM

—OF—

WILD CHERRY!

HAS BEEN USED FOR NEARLY

HALF A CENTURY,

WITH THE MOST ASTONISHING SUCCESS IN CURING

Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, and every affection of the

THROAT, LUNGS, AND CHEST

INCLUDING EVEN

CONSUMPTION.

There is scarcely one individual in the community who wholly escapes, during a season, from some one, however slightly developed, of the above symptoms—a neglect of which might lead to the last named, and most to be dreaded disease in the whole catalogue. The power of "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree over this class of complaints is well known; so great is the good it has performed, and so great the popularity it has acquired.

In this preparation, besides the virtues of the Cherry, there are commingled with it other ingredients of like value, thus increasing its value ten fold, and forming a Remedy whose power to soothe, to heal, to relieve, and to cure disease, exists in no other medicine yet discovered.

The unequalled success that has attended the application of this medicine in all cases of

has induced many physicians of high standing to employ it in their practice, some of whom advise us of the fact under their own signatures. We have space only for the names of a few of these:—

S. H. FINLEY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal.
E. BOYDEN, M. D., Exeter, Me.
ALEXANDER HATCH, M. D., China, Me.

W. B. LYNCH, M. D., Auburn, N. Y.
ABRAHAM SKILLMAN, M. D., Boundbrook, N. J.
H. D. MARTIN, M. D., Mansfield, Pa.

The proprietors have letters from all classes of our fellow citizens, from the halls of Congress to the humblest cottage, and even from beyond the seas, for the fame and virtue of WISTAR'S BALSAM have extended to the uttermost bounds of the earth, without any attempt on our part to introduce it beyond the limits of our own country.

TO CALIFORNIANS AND OREGONIANS.

Dying of Thirst in Australia.

It is already, although only an hour after sunrise, very hot; there is the coppery glare about the northwest portion of the sky which accompanies the hot wind; there is a dull, smoky look about the horizon that portends a "regular scorcher," and although he is as yet only about four miles from the fringe of tall trees that skirt the river, they already look indistinct. The dry track is already blistered, and the walking among the salt bush and cotton bushes is very bad. The bushman begins to think he would have been wiser to follow round the rivers, where he would have had a beaten track, shade and water, than to face the plain for the sake of a short cut. However, he is a good walker, and does not care for the heat; he marches off with his bundle on his back, and his "billy" in his hand. He has done some twelve or thirteen miles; the sun is almost perpendicularly over his head, and he is out of sight of the river timber, fairly out to sea, as it were. He throws down his blankets, sits on them, opens the "billy," and finds that a good deal of the precious water has leaked out; he drinks a little, it is very precious, but he pours a few drops into the lid of the pot for his dog, who, poor fellow, is suffering already, and looks strangely dusty, anxious and dispirited. The dog's ancestors came from the breezy Scotch mountains, and he would be far more at home seeking sleep buried in a snowdrift than plodding across the scorching plain. The traveler stops the leak with a bit of clay, shoulders his bundle and trudges on. The plain seems endless, no sound of living thing breaks the stillness, the very flies that so tormented him near the river have disappeared; there is nothing moving, save unearthly looking columns of red dust towering high in the hot air raised from some distant sand hill by the whirlwinds. On he plods, hour after hour, looking anxiously for the faint wheel marks that guide him. The hot wind burns his eyes and dries his lips, and he moistens his parched mouth now and then with a few drops of the precious water. He is unselfish enough, too, to spare his dog a little water. The water does not refresh him for it is warm and mawkish, and the rim of the tin pot almost scorches his lips. At last he sees a dark gray cloud suspended over the horizon, quivering in the glare of reflected heat. He knows that cloud to be the low timber that skirted the dry bed of the twenty mile lake; he expects to find water on a pit dug on its edge. Drinking the last of his store, he walks on more quickly, knowing that on such a day the trees would not be visible more than a couple of miles. He begins to have pleasant thoughts of a "pot of tea," a pipe and a sleep in the shade of a pine. He hurries on, the afternoon sun is shining in his face, he crosses a beaten track almost without seeing it. Perhaps a thought may arise within him as to the possibility of the hole being dry, and perhaps his heart may still a moment, but he will not think of it. Everything seems strangely still: why are there no birds about the water? Not the twittering of a wren, nor the croak of the crow to break the silence. He notices with a qualm of fear, that there is no footmarks of living thing in the dust of the cattle-paths that lead to the water-hole.

Who can tell what passes through the mind of the lost sailor, as he goes overboard, in a gale off the Horn? Who can realize what that seaman feels as the great ship leaves him far behind on the pitiless waves, among which, he knows too well, no boat can live to save him? And this shepherd as he looks into the pit, and sees grim death staring him in the face, from that dry mud at the bottom of the hole. He has heard his mates talk of dead men's bones found on the plain, and he knows what his end is to be. Poor fellow! He is very thirsty, now, his tongue is swelling in his mouth, and he feels giddy and sick and throws away his pack. He will stagger on a few miles more, hardly knowing whither he is going, lured on perhaps by the treacherous mirage, which will mock his eyes with phantom sheets of clear water, reflecting the trees around them and rippling in the wind, a few hundred yards ahead. He will wander on at random, throwing off his clothes; as he becomes weaker, perhaps he will feel his knife and think of his dog; but his dog has laid down to die under a bush, and that last horrible resource is gone. Then a gleam of hope. Two dark forms looming large against the smoky mist in which the sun is setting, come up rapidly until within half a mile of him. Are they horsemen? They stop. Do they see him? Yes, they have seen him and they fly before the hot wind; he knows they are emues going to water, and that their long legs will carry them to the cool river in two hours or so. Many months after some wandering stockman may see some bones lying on the plains, and may curse the wild hogs for killing calves; he will never notice the round white skull under a salt-bush, a few yards off.—All the Year Round.

An International Copyright.—The Weekly Review, of New York, has an article on International Copyright, from which we extract the following paragraphs:

We believe that the need of an international copyright law is now admitted universally. It was formerly supposed that the opposition to such a measure was countenanced by the great publishing firm of Harper Brothers, who republish more British works than all the other houses put together. It appeared so evident to us that this house had a greater interest than any other in having the business of republishing English works placed on a sound and legitimate footing, that we asked one of the firm the reasons of their opposition. We were gratified to learn that they were not, and never had been, opposed to international copyright; but, on the contrary, they were perfectly aware of the immense advantage it would be to them. In fact, they already pay part of the cost of international copyright for the mere privilege of printing from advanced sheets.

Each number of Dickens' story, now appearing in Harper's Magazine, costs them about four hundred dollars—more or less—according to the price of gold. Wilkie Collins' story, published in the same periodical, is also a considerable expense to them. They find it to their interest to keep an agent in London, for the purpose of making such arrangements with English authors and publishers. This immense outlay for advance sheets, does not, however, secure them the slightest legal right to the works thus obtained. Within twenty-four hours after the first number of "Our Mutual Friend" appeared in their magazine, two rival editions were published by piratical houses. The only method they have discovered for protecting their rights is, occasionally, to put a costly edition of a work at a price so low as to drive all competition from the field, and subject competing houses to such a heavy loss as to deter them from similar enterprises in future. Thus the whole business of republishing English works is precarious, irregular and demoralizing—a game of chance, which invites shaving and plunder.

Now that the return of peace has relieved public men from part of the pressure upon their time and strength, we trust this most important matter will receive attention. All that is needed is for some one man of energy and reputation to adopt international copyright as one of his especial objects, and never lay it aside till he has accomplished it. There is one man in public life who seems marked out by nature and circumstances for securing justice to the instructors of both countries: one who gained his first celebrity as an orator, but has now risen superior to the transient glories of the platform, and devotes himself to the nobler work of practical legislature. We refer to Charles Sumner, Senator from Massachusetts. This illustrious man represents in the Congress of the United States that portion of our civilization which is the most indebted to books. He is himself a lover of books. He knows their value, he knows their cost, he knows by what exhausting and long continued toil, excellence in literature is attained.

He knows from the history of literature, how unfitted literary men as a class, are to contend for their rights, and how many bright spirits from the slenderness of their gains, have degenerated, by over production, into literary hacks. He knows that when an American finds himself in the best circles of a foreign land it is not of Clay, Webster, Calhoun, Jackson and Decatur that he is questioned, but as soon as he is announced as an American, the conversation turns upon Irving, Cooper, Longfellow, Holmes, Lowell, Emerson. These are the men who confer upon their country its brightest and most lasting honors. Statesmen, Generals and Admirals are, as it were, the necessities of a nation, but its poets and authors are the jewels in its crown which are so much the more admired because they serve no purpose of necessity. Let it no longer be said that we are indifferent to the rights of men who minister most to our national pride, and contribute most to the elevation of our minds. Germany, France, England each secures the rights of its authors by protecting the rights of those of the others. Let America make haste to join this fraternity of nations.

Mention was made the other day of the discovery of a coal bed near Camp Lyon, in Owyhee county. Maj. Kinnearson, the lucky discoverer, has since exhibited some specimens in this city that are pronounced by gentlemen who claim to be good judges to be croppings of anthracite of the best quality. Nature is full of compensations, and so the thinly timbered county of Owyhee is likely to be more than supplied by inexhaustible beds of underground fuel. In this connection it may be observed that the probability of iron mining becoming a profitable business in this country does not seem so very remote. It is said that there are already known to be two beds of iron ore within a few miles of this city, both of which are thought to be rich enough to be profitably worked if coal could be had at a reasonable cost. Here is a hint to capitalists who would prospect in a new field of enterprise for the profitable outlay of capital. The consumption of iron is now rapidly becoming an item of great importance to the interests of this Territory and in a few years more must be immense. Situated more than three hundred miles from navigable water, with no speedy prospect of any other than ox team navigation over that distance, are considerations that ought to stimulate the production of iron as much as any other home manufacture. There is a monopoly of a large and profitable business for the first company who will venture to take the lead in developing this source of the mineral wealth of Idaho.—Statesman.

Quick Time for Freight. We noticed on the wagons of the Fast Freight Line yesterday packages that arrived in Boise City, from San Francisco in eleven days. This line is apparently doing a good business, the wagons come in from the east within ten minutes of schedule time every other day and carry full loads of passengers. But the idea of getting freight through from San Francisco in eleven days and from Umatilla in five and that too at prices but little above mule team rates is something new for this country, and not at all unpleasant. This line was started with a view to accommodate the large and increasing business of the house of B. M. DuRell & Co., in getting their own freight through with greater dispatch than was possible by the ordinary way, but the line has thus far been unable to take all the freight that was offered by other parties. The world moves, and business improves.—Idaho Statesman.

Mysterious Disappearance. A resident of Forrest City, five miles east of Banner, has disappeared under circumstances that lead to the suspicion of foul play. The gentleman's name was C. M. Knowles. About five weeks ago he left Pioneer City with the intention of returning immediately to Forrest City. At the time he was supposed to have about $1600 on his person. He packed with him some mining tools and camping equipments. Since that time nothing has been heard from him. At one place among some bushes near the trail over which he probably passed some camping implements have since been found, but no trace of the means by which they became scattered there. He was an estimable citizen, had considerable mining interest at Forrest City and was free from debt. His friends have commenced a search for him, and a company started this week to examine the trails which he probably took on his way.—Idaho World.

Forrest City.—This little place, Dr. Zimmerman informs us, is thriving. About twenty men are at work. The mining claims are exclusively quartz. The face of the country is very favorable to the development of the ledges being in that respect superior to Banner. Forrest is about five miles from the latter place. The citizens of Forrest turned out last week with pick and shovel and completed a good trail between the two towns. Two mills would have been erected at Forrest this season had not the road been so impassible as to preclude the ingress of machinery. We understand that the Chickahominy Company have purchased the claim to the route from Idaho City to Banner and that a good road will soon render the country easy of access.—Idaho World.

Pardon. The President has requested the Attorney General to suspend the issue of warrants for pardon until further orders. This action has been taken in order to facilitate a general clearing up of the numerous and complicated petitions now before the President, to give him the opportunity to adopt some plan which will prevent unnecessary and shameful intervention by the pardon brokers.

Down Freights.—The O. S. N. Company carry freights from Umatilla and Wallula to the Dalles for $7 50 per ton; to Portland, $15. Wool to the Dalles, 1c per pound; to Portland, 2c. Hides to Dalles, 37½c, to Portland, 50c each.—Umatilla Advertiser.

ALLEN'S
LUNG BALSAM!
The Remedy for Curing
CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,
Asthma, Croup,
Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.
ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.
Sold by all Druggists. Price $1, per bottle.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"
THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE BLADDER, KIDNEYS,
Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,
GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.
THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—
DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,
And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the Procreative Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the
CONSTITUTION WATER!
Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by disease, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once restored, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the
MEDICAL WONDER.
The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man. He stands erect, he moves with a firm step, his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom, or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active, and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine restores the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.
IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.
For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to
CONSTITUTION WATER.
Males or Females,
Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.
